The Division received your check in the amount of $8,347.00. The check should have been for $8,350.00. Because the difference is only $3.00 no additional action is needed.

Hi Wayne:

Just for the record, I looked into this and our cheque was in fact for $8,350 as the attached cancelled cheque shows. Maybe the Division's bank charged a small fee for some reason or it was a small data entry error in your accounting dept.

By the way, could you change your email contact for me to chris@inzincmining.com? We changed our name from Lithic Resources to InZinc Mining last year and the lithic@telus.net address will be cancelled soon. All other contact info remains the same.

Thanks,

Chris
